Our Guest Speakers

Barbara Bobrowitz, MEd, of Energetic Alignments, will look through the lens of Feng Shui to teach us how to create a more healing space in our home environment. No matter what your work or lifework embraces, we can only give to others when we have first nourished ourselves.

She will address simple changes we can make to a space, a room, a home that will support the flow of energy in our lives.

Bring a schematic drawing of your house or special room in which you would like to create a more healing space. Please indicate the directions, windows, views and the relationship to other rooms or the streetscape.

Jean Larson, PhD, is Program Manager of the Center for Therapeutic Horticulture & Recreation Services, University of Minnesota Landscape Arboretum. Jean will help us look at healing ways of being in the world. We will learn easy steps to simplify our lives, accessing more green choices for our homes, connecting the inner landscape to the outer landscape and soul to soil.
